VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK 2014 AT IDBI BANK LTD.

Mumbai, October 27, 2014: Vigilance Awareness Week is being observed by IDBI Bank Ltd. from October 27, 2014 to November 01, 2014. The theme of this year's Vigilance Awareness Week is "Combating Corruption – Technology as an Enabler". The Vigilance Awareness Week commenced with the administration of Pledge by Shri M.O. Rego, Deputy Managing Director of the Bank to its Officers & Staff on October 27, 2014, at its Corporate Office in Mumbai. On this occasion, Shri Rego read the message of Hon'ble President of India. The messages of Hon'bleVice-President of India, Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, and Central Vigilance Commissioner, were read by Shri B. Ravindranath, Executive Director, Shri R.K. Bansal, Executive Director and Shri Viney Kumar, Executive Director – Vigilance, respectively. Shri Rego, DMD and other EDs while addressing the staff, stressed upon the importance of Vigilance at each and every level in the Bank. They also stressed on heightened use of technology, which besides enabling higher efficiency in terms of delivery at optimum cost in providing customer service, is a very robust tool to bring transparency and combat corruption.

On this occasion, Shri Rego also released a Special Journal brought out by the Bank's Vigilance Department. The Journal has brought out articles on the CVC's mandated subject 'Combating Corruption – Technology as an enabler', for perusal of IDBI staff.

During the Vigilance Awareness Week, talks by eminent Guest Speakers have been organized. Also, various competitions in the Bank related to the theme of Vigilance Awareness Week and other aspects of vigilance are being arranged.
