Compensation Policy

1. Introduction

1.1 Technological progress in payment and settlement systems and the qualitative changes in operational systems and processes brought out by various players in the market have ushered in increasing competition resulting in improved efficiencies in providing better service to the users of the system. It will be Bank's endeavor to offer services to its customers with best possible utilization of its resources i.e., both human and technical.

1.2 Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has advised that each Bank should have a Board approved Compensation Policy which would provide the contours of the financial compensation in the event of any difficulty/inconvenience/loss suffered or likely to be suffered by the customers on account of the action of Bank.

1.3 IDBI Bank/ Bank is one of the leading Banks in the country, which deploys state-of-the-art technology to provide world-class services to its customers. The Vision Statement of the Bank is "To be the most preferred and trusted Bank enhancing value for all stakeholders".

1.4 As customers are the biggest stakeholders for the Bank, the Vision Statement truly reflects the commitment of the Bank to enhance value to the customers. The Compensation Policy (the Policy) of the Bank is a reflection of the Bank's on-going efforts to provide better service to customers and set higher standards for performance.

1.5 The Mission Statement of the Bank, inter alia, incorporates the following:

- a. Delighting customers with excellent service and comprehensive suite of best-in-class financial solutions;
- b. Continuing to act in an ethical, transparent and responsible manner, becoming the role model for corporate governance;
- c. Deploying world class technology, systems and processes to improve business efficiency and exceed customer's expectations;
- d. The Bank understands that one of the important requirements for customer delight is to have ethical and transparent policy in all its dealings.

1.6 Thus, the Bank acknowledges that the customer is the core constituent of the Bank and every action of the Bank should be aimed at Customer Delight and the Bank should not allow its operations to lead to any monetary loss to the customer.

1.7 However in the extraordinary circumstances of the Bank's action / service leading to any financial loss to the customer, the Bank will compensate the customer for the financial loss. Towards this end, the Bank has formulated a 'Compensation Policy' that gives the rights and responsibilities of the customer and Bank, in matters relating to compensation for the loss, if any, incurred by the customer in their day to day operations with the Bank.

1.8 The Policy is made to ensure that the staff at all levels in the Bank are aware of the Policy of the Bank in this regard, so that dealings with the Customer is uniform across geography and types of customers and is based on transparent standards/procedures.

2. Objectives of the Policy

2.1 To lay down a Policy Frame work for abiding by RBI guidelines on 'Compensation'

2.2 To ensure transparency and equality in the treatment of customers.

2.3 To create a system whereby the Bank compensates a customer for any financial loss that he might incur on account of any deficiency in service / omission / commission directly attributable to the Bank.

2.4 Pay such compensation without the customer asking for the same and thereby reducing instances where the customer has to approach forums such as Banking Ombudsman etc.

2.5 To enable the customer to know before or during a relationship, his rights and responsibilities in matters relating to 'Compensation'.

2.6 To reiterate existing system / put in place proper system in a transparent manner so that the customer can take an informed decision in matters relating to compensation.

3. Scope of the Policy

3.1 This policy is applicable across all branches / business segments of the Bank, and is to be read in conjunction with related operational guidelines issued from time to time.

3.2 The contents of the policy shall always be read in tandem/auto-corrected with the changes/modifications that may be advised by RBI and / or by any regulator and / or by the Bank from time to time.

3.3 Definition of a customer for the purpose of this Policy: Customer is defined as a person or entity that maintains an account with the Bank or availing or has availed any service in the normal course of Banking.

3.4 This Policy attempts to deal with the financial loss to the customer on account of deficiency in service / omission / commission directly attributable to Bank.

3.5 This Policy excludes compensation, if any relating to non-financial loss.

3.6 It is reiterated that the policy covers only compensation for financial losses which customers might incur due to deficiency in the services offered by the Bank which can be measured directly and as such the commitments under this policy are without prejudice to any right the Bank will have in defending its position before any forum duly constituted to adjudicate banker-customer disputes.

4. Unauthorized / Erroneous Debit

4.1 If the Bank has raised an unauthorized / erroneous direct debit to an account, the entry will be reversed with value dated credit to deposit/Overdraft/Loan account immediately on being informed of the erroneous debit, after verifying the position. Further, if the customer has suffered any financial loss incidental to return of a cheque or failure of direct debit instructions due to insufficiency of balance on account of the unauthorized/erroneous debit, the Bank will compensate the customer to the extent of such financial losses, in addition to an amount equivalent to interest calculated on the unauthorized/erroneously debited amount at applicable Savings Bank rate, minimum Rs.100/-, besides refunding the cheque return charges.

4.2 In case verification of the entry reported to be erroneous by the customer does not involve a third party, the Bank shall endeavour to complete the process of verification within a maximum period of 7 working days from the date of reporting of erroneous debit. In case, the verification involves a third party or where verifications are to be done at overseas centres, the Bank shall complete the verification process within a maximum period of one month from the date of reporting of erroneous transaction by the customer.

4.3 The Bank reserves its right to debit the account with value date for reversing the amounts in case a wrong credit is posted to a customer's account without payment of any compensation.

4.4 Erroneous transaction reported by customers in respect of credit card operations which require reference to a merchant establishment will be handled as per rules laid down by card association.

5. Direct Debit / ECS Debit to customer accounts:

5.1 The Bank will undertake to carry out within the prescribed time, direct debit/ ECS debit instructions of customers. In the event the Bank fails to meet such commitments, customer will be compensated to the extent of any financial loss the customer would incur on account of delay in carrying out the instructions/failure to carry out the instructions.

5.2 Such compensation may be equivalent to the interest calculated on the amount to be debited, for the delayed period, at applicable Savings Bank rate, with minimum of Rs.100.00 subject to a maximum of Rs.1000.00

5.3 In the event of any unauthorised / erroneous ECS/Other debit which results in any financial loss to the customer by way of reduction in the minimum balance or payment of additional interest to the Bank in a loan account, Bank will compensate the customer for such financial loss.

5.4 If the customer has suffered any financial loss incidental to return of a cheque or failure of direct debit instructions due to insufficiency of balance on account of the unauthorised / erroneous ECS /Other debit, the Bank will compensate the customer to the extent of such financial losses.

5.5 The compensation for such financial losses will, however, be restricted only to reimbursement of actual expenses incurred by the customer e.g. penalty / interest paid by the customer to regularize the schedule which got disturbed on account of delay in carrying out the instructions/failure to carry out the instructions.

5.6 The Bank would debit the customer's account with any applicable service charge as per the schedule of charges notified by the Bank. In the event the Bank levies any charge in violation of the arrangement or inadvertently, Bank will reverse the charges when pointed out by the customer subject to scrutiny of agreed terms and conditions, and compensate the customer with a sum equal to the charges reversed. Any consequential financial loss to the customer will also be compensated.

6. Delay in credit/ return of NEFT/NECS/ECS transaction

6.1 In terms of the NEFT / NECS / ECS Procedural Guidelines of RBI, as also the relevant circulars / instructions issued by RBI from time to time, Bank shall afford credits to the account of beneficiary or return the transactions (un-credited for whatever reason) to the originating / sponsor bank within the prescribed timeline and any delay in doing so will attract penal provisions specified therein.

6.2 Accordingly, Bank would give NECS/ECS Credit on the same day of receipt subject to beneficiary details received from sponsor Bank matching with the customer records as available with Bank. In case of any delayed ECS Credit, Bank will pay penal interest at the current RBI Repo Rate plus two per cent from the due date of credit till the date of actual credit for any delayed credit to the beneficiary's account. Penal interest shall be credited to the Beneficiary's Account even if no claim is lodged.

6.3 In case of NEFT, in the event of any delay or loss on account of error, negligence or fraud on the part of an employee of the Bank, the Bank shall pay compensation at current RBI Repo Rate plus two per cent for the period of delay for credit to the beneficiary's a/c. Compensation shall be credited to the Beneficiary's Account even if no claim is lodged.

7. Payment of Cheques after Stop Payment Instructions/Non Blocking of lost Debit card after acknowledgement of request for its blocking

7.1 In case a cheque has been paid after stop payment instruction is properly submitted and acknowledged by the Bank/Debit card has not been blocked after such a request has been acknowledged by the Bank, Bank shall reverse the debit on account of stopped cheque/blocked Debit card with value-dated credit to protect the interest of the customer and also compensate the customer with Rs.100/-. Any consequential financial loss to the customer will be compensated to the extent of actual amount that the customer might have incurred, after ascertaining and being satisfied about the amount of such loss. Such debits will be reversed within 2 working days of the customer intimating the transaction to the Bank.

7.2 However, no compensation will be paid if cheque has been paid/ ATM Card transaction has occurred prior to acknowledgment of instructions for stop payment of cheque/ blocking of lost ATM Card.

8. Foreign Exchange Services

A. Foreign Cheques/Instrument Collection

8.1 The Bank has Policy on Collection of Cheques including Foreign Currency Denominated Instruments. Such instruments are accepted for collection on 'best effort' basis. Bank may enter into specific collection arrangement with its Correspondent Banks for speedy collection of such instruments. The timelines for collection of such cheques are as follows:

Collection Method	Collection Timeframe
a. For USD / GBP/ EUR Cheques / Instruments sent under Cash Letter Arrangement (CLA) of our Correspondent Banks. Cheque collection under CLA is restricted to USD 1000 or equivalent	Credit to the customer's account after expiry of the cooling period i.e 21 days from the date of provisional credit in Nostro Account.
b. For USD / GBP/ EUR Cheques / Instruments sent under Final Collection Services (FCS) and / or Preferred Collection Services(PCS) of our Correspondent Banks. USD cheques of amounts more than USD 1000 and upto USD10,000 or equivalent, will be sent under this arrangement	Immediate credit to the customer's account after sighting the funds in Nostro account.
c. For Cheques/Instruments sent under Direct Collection Arrangement (DCA). DCA facility for cheques collection is only for cheques amounting to greater than USD 10,000 or equivalent or where the Bank is not having CLA/FCS arrangement	Immediate credit to the customer's account after sighting the funds in Nostro account.

8.2 The above time norms are applicable irrespective of whether cheques/instruments are drawn on the Bank's own branches or branches of other Banks. The Bank may permit selective withdrawal of funds before the expiry of the cooling period depending on the customer's credit worthiness, relationship with the Bank, KYC compliance, indemnity undertaking, etc. as per the delegation of power (DOP) for waiver of cooling period by the designated authority.

8.3 Bank takes adequate care for prompt and expeditious despatch and realisation of all clean instruments. In view of different clearing rules and legal provisions prevailing in different countries with regard to the collection of clean instruments, it is difficult to ascertain the exact due date of payment towards the FC denominated Cheques/Instruments sent for collection. However, in case of delay in applying the credit after sighting the funds in the Bank's Nostro account after expiry of seven days or after the expiry of the cooling period as the case may be, the depositor will be paid interest @ 2% over the rate applicable to the Savings Bank deposit for the delayed period. If the Cheque/Instrument amount is kept as Foreign Currency Deposit in the same currency, the deposit will be value dated as the date of the Nostro credit.

8.4 Compensation in case of an adverse movement of exchange rate arising due to delay in applying the credit after sighting the funds in the Bank's Nostro account or after the expiry of the cooling period as the case may be, shall be provided as "25% of the difference between TTB rates as per Card Rates of the Bank ruling on those dates (i.e. on the due date of payment and the date of conversion)".

B. Export Bills sent for collection

8.5 The proceeds of export collection bills are credited after sighting the foreign currency amount in the Nostro account of the bank provided the customer has complied with FEMA guidelines and Bank's requirements.

8.6 Compensation arising due to delay in applying the credit as per point no. 8.5 will be as below:

- (i) Compensation for interest: Minimum interest rate applicable on export credit.
- (ii) Compensation for adverse movement of exchange rate: 25% of the difference between TTB rates as per Card Rates of the Bank ruling on those dates (i.e. on the due date of payment and the date of conversion).

C. Clean Inward Remittance

8.7 Bank shall pay or send intimation, as the case may be, to the beneficiary in two working days from the date of receipt of Nostro statement/credit advice.

8.8 The proceeds of inward remittance will be credited to the account provided the customer has complied with FEMA guidelines and Bank's requirements.

8.9 Compensation arising due to delay in applying the credit as per point no. 8.7 and 8.8 will be as below:

- (i) Compensation for interest: 2% over the rate applicable to the Savings Bank deposit for the delayed period.
- (ii) Compensation for adverse movement of exchange rate: 25% of the difference between TTB rates as per Card Rates of the Bank ruling on those dates (i.e. on the due date of payment and the date of conversion).

9. Payment of Compensation on delayed collection of Outstation Cheque

9.1 Bank shall pay interest on the amount of collection instrument, in case there is delay in giving credit beyond the prescribed time period without any demand from the customer. The compensation on account of delays in collection of outstation instruments would be as indicated in the Bank's Cheque collection policy, which is reproduced below:

- (a) Savings Bank rate for the period of delay beyond 7 days in collection of outstation cheques payable at CTS Centres and 10 days in non CTS Centres.
- (b) Where the delay is beyond 14 days interest will be paid at the rate applicable to term deposit for the respective period.
- (c) In case of extraordinary delay, i.e. delays exceeding 90 days interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the corresponding Term Deposit rate.
- (d) In the event the proceeds of cheque under collection were to be credited to an overdraft/loan account of the customer, interest will be paid at the rate applicable to the loan account. For extraordinary delays, interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the rate applicable to the loan account.

As per the Bank's Code for Commitment to Customers, 2018, monitored by BCSBI, Bank shall make payment of the said compensation to the customers, in case of delay in realization of outstation Cheques, beyond the prescribed period, without any demand from the customer and through computer automated process. However, due to system limitations, compensation / interest would be paid to CC / OD / Loan accounts for delayed realization through manual intervention.

10. Delay in Clearance of Local Cheques

10.1 The compensation on account of delays in collection of Local Cheques would be as indicated in the Bank's Cheque Collection policy. The same is extracted below for information:

"Saving Bank Rate for the period of delay beyond 3 working days in case of local cheques". The interest shall be paid without any demand from customers.

11. Cheques / Instruments lost in transit / in clearing process or at paying Bank's branch

11.1 The Bank has defined the compensation payable in cases where the customer has tendered a cheque for collection. The details of the same is available in the Bank's Cheque Collection Policy, The same is extracted below for information.

11.2 When a cheque or an instrument accepted for collection is lost in transit or in the clearing process or at the paying Bank's branch, the Bank shall immediately on coming to know of the loss, bring the same to the notice of the accountholder so that the accountholder can inform the drawer to record stop payment and also take care that cheques, if any, issued by him / her are not dishonored due to non-credit of the amount of the lost cheques / instruments.

11.3 The Bank shall provide all assistance to the customer to obtain a duplicate instrument from the drawer of the cheque, if required. In case of an international cheque being lost, the Bank shall also advise the correspondent/ drawee Bank all particulars of lost cheques/ instruments for exercising caution. The Bank shall arrange to get payment of the international instrument based on the photocopy/ scanned image of the instrument wherever the practice is prevalent.

11.4 For instruments which are lost by the Bank during clearing / transit, ie prior to receipt at the paying bank (other than received at CTS grid collection centres) the Bank will compensate the account holder the following way:

- a) In case intimation regarding loss of instrument is conveyed to the customer beyond the time limit stipulated for collection (7/10 days as the case may be) interest will be paid for the period exceeding the stipulated collection period at the rates specified in para 9.1 above.
- b) In addition, Bank will pay interest on the amount of the cheque for a further period of 15 days at Savings Bank rate to provide for likely further delay in obtaining duplicate cheque/instrument and collection thereof.
- c) Reasonable charges, incurred in getting duplicate cheque / instrument upon production of receipt, in the event the instrument is to be obtained from a Bank/ institution who would charge a fee for issue of duplicate instrument. The charges incurred for making stop payment of the lost cheque by the customer with the Paying Bank will also be compensated by the Bank.
- d) Bank shall bear all the cost for obtaining duplicate instrument when a cheque, which has been discounted, is lost. But the customer will assist in obtaining duplicate instrument. His/ her liability under Negotiable Instrument Act will not be extinguished till Bank receives the proceeds of Cheque.

12. Violation of the Code by Bank's agent

12.1 In the event of receipt of any complaint from the customer that the Bank's representative / courier or DSA has engaged in any improper conduct or acted in violation of the Code of Bank's Commitment to Customers which the Bank has adopted voluntarily, Bank shall take appropriate steps to investigate and redress the complaint and endeavour to communicate to the customer within 7 working days from the date of receipt of complaint and, where justified, may compensate the customer suitably for financial loss as decided by the Bank. Also, necessary steps will be taken, if required as per Bank's decision, to prevent recurrence of similar complaints.

13. Issue of Duplicate Draft and compensation for delays

13.1 Duplicate draft will be issued within fortnight from the receipt of request complete with all documentation to that effect from the purchaser of the Draft. For delay beyond the above stipulated period, interest at the rate applicable for fixed deposit of corresponding period will be paid as compensation to the customer for such delay.

14. Payment of "at par Cheques" issued by Other Banks

14.1 Bank will not pay any compensation, to the cheque holder, for dishonour of "at par" cheques issued by other banks, including co-operative banks, in the absence of adequate funds in the account on which cheques are issued even though the amount of the cheque may have been paid to the bank, which had issued the "at par" cheque. RBI has expressed concern over the lack of transparency in the arrangement for payment of "at par" instruments of co-operative Banks by commercial Banks resulting in dishonour of such instruments when the remitter has already paid for the instruments. In this connection it is clarified that the Bank will not honour cheques drawn on current accounts maintained by co-operative Banks with it unless arrangements are made for funding cheques issued. RBI instructions stipulate that banks will not honour cheques drawn on current accounts maintained by other banks with it, unless arrangements are made for funding cheques issued. Issuing Bank should be responsible to compensate the cheque holder for non-payment/delayed payment of cheques in the absence of adequate funding arrangement.

15. Return of Documents of Title

15.1 Security documents / title deeds, lodged as security for the loan availed, shall be returned to customer within 15 working days of repayment of all dues by the customer, including principal amount, interest, EMI, costs, service charges, expenses etc. This is subject to there being no outstanding under any other loan / overdraft / other financial facility availed by the customer from the Bank /any Branch of the Bank. Unreasonable delay on the part of the Bank in returning such documents will lead to compensation at the rate of Rs.100/- per day to be paid to the customer and maximum amount of Rs5000/-.

15.2 For loss of such property documents in the hands of the Bank, the Bank will reimburse the actual cost of obtaining certified copies of the lost documents from the respective office of sub- registrar of assurances and Lawyer's fees, incidentals etc., subject to a maximum of Rs. 25,000/- per case.

15.3 In case of loss of such property documents, in addition to the above, Bank will compensate a lumpsum amount of Rs 5000/- for loans with Original Sanctioned amount is Rs 20 lakhs and Rs 10,000/- for Original Sanctioned amount of above Rs 20 lakhs on account of hardship caused to the customer due to loss of property documents.

16. ATM Failure

16.1 Bank would reimburse the customer, the amount wrongfully debited on account of failed ATM within a maximum period of 7 working days from the receipt of the complaint. For any failure to re-credit the customer's account within 7 working days from the date of receipt of the complaint, Bank shall pay compensation of Rs.100/- per day to the aggrieved customer. This compensation shall be credited to the customer's account automatically without any claim from the customer, on the same day when Bank affords the credit for the failed ATM transactions. Details of charge back in case of ATM transaction by a customer of the bank when he uses other bank ATM may be included.

16.2 Customer is entitled to receive such compensation for delay, only if a claim is lodged with the issuing Bank within 30 days of the date of the transaction.

16.3 In case of dispute in regard to delayed credit to the customer's account from Bunch Note Acceptor (BNA) or Cash Recycler Machine (CDM), the Bank will pay the interest at the applicable rate of the customer's deposit/overdraft/loan account for the delayed period, after due verification. However, in case of any dispute related to genuineness of the currency deposited in the BNA/CRM, it will not be covered under Bank's compensation policy.

17. Compensation in case of frauds (other than Internet Banking)

17.1 The following is laid down for all the fraud cases other than those pertaining to Internet Banking Frauds. Typically these frauds are of the following types:

- Lottery
- Job Rackets

- Transfer of Funds towards emails received.
 - (a) If a fraud, in the account of a customer, has been committed by a member of staff, and has been so established, the Bank will not only restore the amount, it will also pay compensation @ 1% above the applicable interest rate in respect of deposit/overdraft/loan account, for the period, on the amount involved.
 - (b) In case where Bank is at fault, the Banks shall compensate customers without demur.
 - (c) In case where neither the Bank is at fault nor the customer, but the fault lies elsewhere in the system, the Bank will help in restoring the actual amount involved and, as a gesture of goodwill & to deal with the customers fairly, will also compensate the customer with Rs.100/- per Rs.5000/- (maximum Rs.1000/-) for each instance.

18. Compensation for delay in Pension payment

18.1 Bank shall compensate the pensioners for the delayed period beyond the due date at 8% penal interest as per the instructions of RBI. Further the compensation shall be credited to the pensioners account automatically without any claim from the pensioner on the same day when the Bank affords credit for revised pension/arrears, in respect of all delayed pension payments made since October 1, 2008.

19 Issue of Debit/Credit Cards without written consent of customers:

19.1 Where the Bank had issued an ATM / Debit card without written consent of the customer, which has been disputed by the customer without using the card, the said ATM/Debit card will be taken back by the Bank and cancelled. The Bank would reverse the charges, if levied.

19.2 Where it is established that the Bank had issued and activated a credit card without consent of the customer, the Bank would not only reverse the charges immediately but also pay a penalty without demur to the customer amounting to twice the value of charges reversed.

20. Other areas of deficiencies in services

20.1 Where loan has been allowed against NSCs, KVPs, LIC policy and the Branch after maturity of the instruments does not collect the proceeds of the instruments in question from the concerned Post Offices/ LIC Offices, thereby charging interest in the loan account is continued, excess interest so charged in the loan account will be reversed to the customer immediately.

20.2 In case of affecting reversal of excess interest charged in the borrowal accounts due to non-adjustment of liquid securities like Fixed Deposits/ NSC/KVP/ LIC policy etc in time, the concerned Branch will have to obtain prior permission /approval from the controlling Regional Offices.

20.3 Bank is a corporate Agent and distributor of Insurance and Mutual Fund products respectively. For any deficiencies in services bank will assist customers to raise their grievances with the tie-up partners.

21. Timeline for payment of compensation

21.1 The amount of compensation for deficiencies in various categories of Banking Services as mentioned in this Policy should be paid to the customers within 15 (fifteen) days after the deficiency is acknowledged.

22. Responsibility of Customers

22.1 Customer shall be responsible for safe keeping of Cheque book, Passbook, Cards, PIN, passwords or other security information.

22.2 Bank will not be responsible for the loss to the customers due to customer's carelessness in keeping the Cheque book, Passbook, Cards, PIN or other security information and not following Do's and Don'ts issued by Bank, until the Bank has been notified by the customer.

23. Disclaimer Clause
